Salisbury District Methodist Scholarship

This scholarship is established through the Unemployment Response Ministry (URM) of the Salisbury District of the United Methodist Church. The URM was founded to help those who were laid off due to the closing of Fieldcrest-Cannon Mills. The URM's main focus was on unemployment and helping persons better their situations. This scholarship will continue to provide assistance for those seeking job retraining.

One or more Salisbury District Methodist Scholarships will be awarded for the 2008-2009 school year. The scholarship should be used for tuition, books, and other related expenses.

To be considered for the Salisbury District Methodist Scholarship for the 2008-2009 academic year, the student must meet the following criteria:

1. The student must be enrolled at Rowan-Cabarrus Community College for the purpose of being retrained.
2. The student must be a resident of Rowan or Cabarrus County.
3. The student must be actively affiliated with the United Methodist Church
4. The student must supply two letters of recommendations, one being from the United Methodist Church pastor with which you are affiliated.
5. Students must be enrolled in at least 6 credit hours.
6. The student must provide a high school or college transcript, whichever is applicable.
